

Salsa Competition
Culinary Arts – Mrs. Nafis

Assignment:

As a group you are to find an awesome tomato-based salsa recipe. You can get one from a relative, friend, cookbook, web site or devise your own. The recipe must yield 3 cups of salsa. You must get the recipe ok'd by me before you fill out any paperwork. You will write the recipe below and fill out a market order. Be sure you have exact measurements. All team members must have a copy of the recipe for their recipe book, including the cost.

Additionally, you will write a brief story about the “history” of your awesome salsa that may sway someone to vote for your special salsa. All salsas will be exported to another classroom for the competition. Two winners will be announced – one for the salsa and one for the story of the salsa. The winners of the competition will receive 25 extra credit points.

Name of your awesome creation: _____
Where did you get the recipe? _____

Ingredients:

Directions:

Cost: _____

Story: write on the back of this sheet.

The story must have a beginning, middle and end, but be relatively short. Give the characters in the story names that will endear them to the reader. Be creative –this is your chance to sway a vote for your incredible salsa.
